B. When requesting a contribution, the professional solicitor shall clearly disclose or provide contact information for the following information, if requested by the person being solicited:

1. The name of the professional fundraiser that employs or retains the professional solicitor, as set out in the registration statement filed with the Secretary of State, and the fact that the professional fundraiser is being paid for his or her services;

2. The name of the charitable organization the person represents and a description of how the contributions raised by the solicitation will be used; and

3. The percentage of the contributions solicited that the professional fundraiser is to receive and the registration number of the professional fundraiser, the charitable organization and the professional solicitor, as requested.

C. No person shall act as a professional solicitor if the person has been convicted by a court of any state or the United States of a felony or of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or arising from conduct by the person in connection with fundraising or the solicitation of any funds, for or on behalf of a charitable organization, or the use or expenditure of any funds raised, collected, or received in any fundraising activity.

D. Any registration form required to be filed under this section shall be executed by signature, without more, of the person signing the form, in which case the signature shall constitute the affirmation of the signatory, under penalty of perjury, that the signature is that person's act and deed, and that the facts stated therein are true.

SECTION 9. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 552.14a of Title 18, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. Applicable to charitable organizations, professional fundraisers and professional solicitors, the following shall constitute violations of this act:

1. Knowingly making any false material statement or representation on a registration application;

2. Using the name of a person when soliciting contributions or in an advertisement, brochure, stationery or correspondence, without the consent or approval of such person, other than an officer, director or trustee of the charitable organization by or for which contributions are solicited. This paragraph shall not apply to the use of the name of a person that has contributed to or sponsored an event or program of the charitable organization in a report, brochure, program or listing of donors, contributors, sponsors, or supporters issued or published by a charitable organization. This paragraph shall not apply to the use of a public figure's name and/or likeness truthfully and in good faith, so long as such use does not imply a false endorsement;

3. Knowingly using, in connection with solicitation of contributions for the purpose of deceiving the public, a name similar to other charitable organizations, professional fundraiser, professional solicitor or government agency or political subdivision;

4. Failing to register as required pursuant to Sections 552.3, 552.7 or 552.9, as applicable, of Title 18 of the Oklahoma Statutes unless otherwise exempted by this act;

5. Employing in any solicitation or collection of contributions for a charitable organization any device, scheme or artifice to defraud or for obtaining money or property by means of any false pretense, representation or promise; and

6. Failing or refusing to supply requested information as required by Section 552.9 of Title 18 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

B. The Attorney General or a district attorney may bring an action:

1. To obtain a declaratory judgment that an act or practice violates this act;
2. To enjoin, or to obtain a restraining order against a person who has violated or is violating this act;
3. To recover actual damages, restitution, disgorgement and penalties attributed to a violation of this act;
4. To recover reasonable expenses and investigation fees attributable to a violation of this act;
5. To prosecute any civil or criminal actions as provided by this act, as applicable; and
6. To revoke the registration of a charitable organization, professional fundraiser, or professional solicitor for any violation of this act.

C. In lieu of instigating or continuing an action or proceeding, the Attorney General or a district attorney may accept a consent judgment with respect to any act or practice declared to be a violation of this act. Such a consent judgment shall provide for the discontinuance by the person entering the same of any act or practice declared to be a violation of this act, and it may include a stipulation for the payment by such person of reasonable expenses, attorney fees, investigation costs and penalties incurred by the Attorney General or a district attorney. The consent judgment also may include a stipulation for restitution to be made by such person to contributors of money, property or other things received from contributors in connection with a violation of this act and also may include a stipulation for specific performance. Any consent judgment entered into pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to admit the violation, unless it does so by its terms. Before any consent judgment entered into pursuant to this section shall be effective, it must be approved by the district court and an entry made in the manner required for making an entry of judgment. After such approval is received, any breach of the conditions of such consent judgment shall be treated as a violation of a court order, and shall be subject to all the penalties provided by law therefor.

D. In any action brought by the Attorney General or a district attorney, the court may:

1. Make such orders or judgments as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by a person of any practice declared to be a violation of this act;

2. Make such orders or judgments as may be necessary to compensate any person for damages sustained;

3. Enjoin any person from engaging in solicitation of charitable contributions in this state;

4. Revoke the registration of a charitable organization, professional fundraiser or professional solicitor;

5. Enter any order that is appropriate in a criminal prosecution of crimes identified in this act or any other state law; and

6. Grant other appropriate relief.

E. When an action is filed under this act by the Attorney General or a district attorney, no action seeking an injunction or declaratory judgment shall be filed in any other district in this state based upon the same transaction or occurrence, series of transactions or occurrences, or allegations that form the basis of the first action filed.

F. When the Attorney General or a district attorney has reason to believe that a person has engaged in, is engaging in or is about to engage in any practice declared to be in violation of this act and he or she believes it to be in the public interest that an investigation should be made to ascertain whether a person has in fact engaged in, is engaging in or is about to engage in any such practice, he or she may execute in writing and cause to be served upon any such person who is believed to have information, documentary material or physical evidence relevant to the alleged violation an investigative demand requiring such person to furnish, under oath or otherwise, a report in writing setting forth the nonprivileged relevant facts and circumstances of which the person has knowledge, or to appear and testify, or to produce relevant nonprivileged documentary material or physical evidence for examination at such reasonable time and place as may be stated in the investigative demand, concerning the solicitation of charitable contributions.

G. To accomplish the objectives and to carry out the duties prescribed by this act, the Attorney General or district attorney, in addition to other powers conferred on him or her by this act or the laws of this state, may issue subpoenas or other process to any person and conduct hearings in aid of any investigation or inquiry, administer oaths and take sworn statements under penalty of perjury, and serve and execute in any county, search warrants; provided, that none of the powers conferred by this act shall be used for the purpose of compelling any natural person to furnish testimony or evidence that might tend to incriminate him or her or subject him or her to a penalty; and provided further, that information obtained pursuant to the powers conferred by this act shall not be made public or disclosed by the Attorney General, district attorney or their employees unless otherwise provided under this act.

H. In addition to any other penalties provided under this act, a charitable organization, professional fundraiser, or professional solicitor that is found to be in violation of the Oklahoma Solicitation of Charitable Contributions Act in a civil action or who willfully violates the terms of any injunction or court order issued pursuant to the Oklahoma Solicitation of Charitable Contributions Act shall pay a civil penalty of not more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per violation, taking into account the nature and severity of the violation and the benefit provided to the public by the violator, along with the need for protecting contributors and donors. For the purposes of this section, the district court issuing an injunction shall retain jurisdiction, and in such cases, the Attorney General, acting in the name of the state, or a district attorney may petition for recovery of civil penalties.

I. In administering and pursuing actions under this act, the Attorney General and a district attorney are authorized to sue for and collect reasonable expenses, attorney fees, and investigation fees as determined by the court. Civil penalties or contempt penalties sued for and recovered by the Attorney General or a district attorney shall be used for the furtherance of their duties and activities under this act.

J. In addition to other penalties imposed by this act, any person convicted in a criminal proceeding of committing an act prohibited in paragraph 1, 3 or 5 of subsection A of this section, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections for not more than five (5) years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 10. AMENDATORY 18 O.S. 2001, Section 552.16, is amended to read as follows:

Section 552.16 ~~This act~~ The Oklahoma Solicitation of Charitable Contributions Act shall not be construed to limit or to restrict the exercise of the powers or the performance of the duties of the Attorney General or of any ~~county~~ district attorney of this state which they otherwise are authorized to exercise or perform under any other provision of law.

SECTION 11. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 552.19 of Title 18, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. The Secretary of State shall make available on the Secretary of State's website all pertinent information related to the entities that are required to register under this act including information included in the entity's registration. The Secretary of State shall also create a numbering system and assign a registration number to each entity that is required to register under this act. The registration number shall also be identified with the registered entity on the website.

B. The Secretary of State shall, on or before July 1, 2012, provide for electronic registration of all entities required to register under this act.

C. The Secretary of State shall notify the Office of the Attorney General if, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, there is such a violation of the Oklahoma Solicitation of Charitable Contributions Act that the Office of the Attorney General needs to be aware of in order to investigate or prosecute.

D. The Office of the Attorney General may review all applications and renewals and other relevant information required to be filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to this act in order to determine the reasonableness and accuracy of such information and to determine if there are any violations of the act. If the Office of the Attorney General finds any questionable information or inaccuracies, it may notify the charitable organization, professional fundraiser or professional solicitor of such discrepancies and allow a reasonable time to cure such discrepancies. If such discrepancies are not cured in a reasonable time or if the Office of the Attorney General becomes aware of any other violations of this act, then it may investigate and/or prosecute as authorized by this act.

E. If the Office of the Attorney General becomes aware of any charitable organization, professional fundraiser, or professional solicitor that has not registered and that is required to register under the Oklahoma Solicitation of Charitable Contributions Act, then the Office of the Attorney General shall notify such entity in writing that it must comply with the act and register. If the entity has not registered within one month after written notification then the Office of the Attorney General may take enforcement action concerning the failure to register.

SECTION 12. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 552.20 of Title 18, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

There is hereby created in the State Treasury a revolving fund for the Office of the Secretary of State to be designated the "Secretary of State Charitable Solicitations Revolving Fund". The fund shall be a continuing fund, not subject to fiscal year limitations, and shall consist of all monies received by the Office of the Secretary of State from sources provided under this act and any appropriations made by the Legislature. All monies accruing to the credit of the fund are hereby appropriated and may be budgeted and expended by the Secretary of State in furtherance of its duties under the provisions of the Oklahoma Solicitation of Charitable Contributions Act. Expenditures from the fund shall be made upon warrants issued by the State Treasurer against claims filed as prescribed by law with the Director of State Finance for approval and payment.

SECTION 13. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 552.21 of Title 18, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

There is hereby created in the State Treasury a revolving fund for the Office of the Attorney General to be designated the "Attorney General Charitable Solicitations Enforcement Revolving Fund". The fund shall be a continuing fund, not subject to fiscal year limitations, and shall consist of all monies received by the Office of the Attorney General from sources provided under this act and any appropriations made by the Legislature. All monies accruing to the credit of the fund are hereby appropriated and may be budgeted and expended by the Attorney General in furtherance of its duties under the provisions of the Oklahoma Solicitation of Charitable Contributions Act. Expenditures from the fund shall be made upon warrants issued by the State Treasurer against claims filed as prescribed by law with the Director of State Finance for approval and payment.

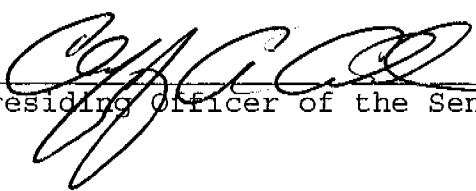

SECTION 14. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 552.22 of Title 18, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

All registrations, unless otherwise terminated pursuant to this act, made prior to the effective date of this act shall remain effective until they expire and any registrations occurring after the effective date of this act shall be made with the Office of the Secretary of State pursuant to this act.

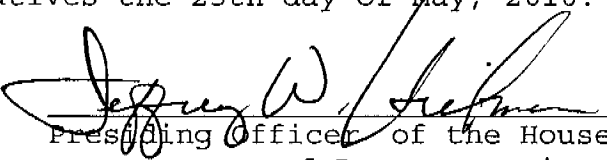

SECTION 15. REPEALER 18 O.S. 2001, Sections 552.3a, 552.5, 552.10, 552.11, 552.12, 552.14, 552.15, 552.17 and 552.18, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 16. This act shall become effective July 1, 2011.
